You are hereby notified, in accordance with CBB's Circular ODG/407/03 concerning reporting duty of certain holdings of securities, that you are now deemed to hold an insider position and that such has been reported to the CMS Directorate at the CBB.

The fact that you hold an insider position in a listed company means, among other things, that in accordance with the above stated circular, you must report in writing to the Board's Committee in the company, your own and your connected persons' holdings and changes in the holdings of shares and securities in the company. Therefore, you should more closely familiarize yourself with the scope and meaning of the reporting duty. More information may be found on CBB's web page (<http://www.cbb.gov.bh>).
