INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a declaration of beneficial ownership is based on CBB's Circular ODG/407/03 on Disclosure Standards, according to which the declared beneficial ownership information must be maintained in a form prescribed by the CBB. Provisions on how and when the declarations must be made are contained in the Disclosure Standards and the Guidelines on Insiders issued by the Central Bank of Bahrain - CMS Directorate. Some of these provisions are included in these instructions. The regulation contains provisions on who shall make a declaration, on what shall be declared, on how a connected person(s), and controlled and influenced corporation(s) is defined. The Disclosure Standards and the Guidelines on Insiders are also available on the CBB's website (www.cbb.gov.bh), and copies of the form may be obtained from the listed companies themselves.

Persons subject to the disclosure requirement must declare on this form their own beneficial ownership and the holdings of persons under their guardianship and connected persons, and corporations controlled or influenced by them. The form must be filed with the listed company in which the person concerned is an insider. A declaration of beneficial ownership is made at the time the person assumes a duty subject to the declaration requirement. The disclosure requirement applies to shares, and securities carrying entitlement of shares. The declaration must be submitted to the company within 10 days of the date the person concerned assumed duties as an insider subject to the disclosure requirements.

Upon request made by a person subject to the disclosure requirement, the company is obliged to disclose to him/her the entries concerning him/her in the Insider Register. The company will inform the insider regarding the entity(s) or source of information from which the company obtained and verified the information concerned to him.

If the space provided in the form is insufficient, a note referring to further attachments must be made on the form. The attachments must provide corresponding information and they must be signed and dated. The initial basic data and changes therein must be declared using Form: Ins-2, Declaration on insider beneficial ownership Form: Ins-3, and change in declaration on insider beneficial ownership Form: Ins-4, which are available from the listed company.

PLEASE USE BLOCK LETTERS When completing the form.

To help select the appropriate response, use the following instructions/ references:

- (1) CPR/IN Number: - For individual Bahraini and non-Bahraini residents, use the Central Population Registration number (CPR).
 - For non-resident non-Bahraini individuals use the unique number equivalent to the CPR.
 - For legal entities use the Commercial Registration with the Ministry of Industry & Commerce or equivalent for non-Bahraini entities.

Note: For all the abovementioned persons who already have an Investor Number (IN) in the Bahrain Stock Exchange's CDS database, the same should be used here.
